ORDER

The Defendant, Carolyn W. Colvin, Acting, Commissioner of Social Security, by her attorneys, William N. Nettles, United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina, and Barbara M. Bowens, Assistant United States Attorney, has moved this Court, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), to enter a judgment with an order of reversal with remand of the cause to the Commissioner for further administrative proceedings.

On order of the Court, this case will be remanded to the Appeals Council. Upon remand, the Appeals Council will refer Plaintiff case to an administrative law judge (ALJ) for further proceedings, including, but not limited to, determining whether this presents a borderline age situation and, if so, whether use of a higher age category is warranted.

The ALJ will take any steps necessary to complete the administrative record on remand, and issue a new decision.

Pursuant to the power of this Court to enter a judgment affirming, modifying, or reversing the Commissioner's decision with remand in Social Security actions under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), and in light of the Commissioner's request for remand of this action for further proceedings, this Court hereby REVERSES the Commissioner's decision under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) with a REMAND of the cause to the Commissioner for further administrative proceedings as set out above.¹ See Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292 (1993).

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
